Copyright Transfer Statement:

As the author(s) of the manuscript titled above, I/we hereby transfer to World Environment Journal (WEJ), an open-access, peer-reviewed publication, the non-exclusive right to publish and distribute the manuscript in all forms and formats, including but not limited to electronic and print media, under the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License (CC BY 4.0). This allows others to freely share, copy, distribute, and adapt the article, as long as proper credit is given to the original author(s).

Terms of Agreement:

1. Author Rights:

- a. Authors retain full copyright to the work, subject to the open-access licensing terms of CC BY 4.0.
- b. Authors may reuse their article in other publications with proper citation and acknowledgment of World Environment Journal as the original publisher.

2. Third-Party Content:

- a. If your manuscript includes any third-party copyrighted material, you confirm that you have obtained appropriate permission to use such material, and the permission is clearly documented. You are responsible for all such permissions and licenses.

3. Non-Exclusive License:

- a. The authors grant World Environment Journal the right to use the manuscript in its published form, including online, print, and in promotional materials, while the authors retain all other rights to their work.

4. Open Access Agreement:

- a. The article will be published under the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License (CC BY 4.0), meaning it will be freely available to the public under the terms of this license.
5. Waiver of Claims:
- a. The authors waive any claim to compensation for the use or distribution of their work as outlined in this agreement, acknowledging that World Environment Journal provides an open-access platform for dissemination.

Author's Declaration:

- I. I/we declare that the manuscript is original, and has not been published or submitted elsewhere for publication.
- II. I/we confirm that all necessary ethical approvals and consent for publication have been obtained for any research involving human or animal subjects, and that all relevant conflicts of interest have been disclosed.
- III. I/we also confirm that this manuscript is not under consideration by any other journal or publisher.
- IV. Plagiarism and Ethical Violations:
Authors are fully responsible for ensuring that their manuscript does not infringe on the copyright or intellectual property rights of any third parties. This includes ensuring that all sources are properly cited and that the content is original. Any allegations of plagiarism, falsification of data, or other ethical violations are the sole responsibility of the authors.
- V. Permissions for Third-Party Content:
Authors are responsible for obtaining necessary permissions for any third-party content included in the manuscript (e.g., figures, tables, images, or text). This includes providing proper credit for any copyrighted materials used and ensuring that any necessary licenses or permissions are secured. If the manuscript includes copyrighted material, authors must provide written confirmation of such permissions.
- VI. Conflict of Interest Disclosure:
Authors must disclose any potential conflicts of interest that may arise from the manuscript, whether personal, professional, or financial. They are responsible for ensuring full transparency regarding any relationships or financial interests that may be perceived as a conflict of interest in the context of their research.
- VII. Ethical Approval and Consent:
Authors are responsible for ensuring that their research complies with ethical standards, including obtaining the necessary ethical approval from Institutional Review Boards (IRBs) or ethics committees where applicable. They must also obtain informed consent from participants where appropriate, particularly for research involving human subjects.
- VIII. Accuracy and Integrity of Data:
Authors bear responsibility for the accuracy and integrity of the data and results presented in the manuscript. They must ensure that all data is accurate, reproducible, and appropriately analyzed, and that any errors or inaccuracies are corrected prior to submission.

IX. Compliance with Legal Requirements:

Authors must ensure that their manuscript complies with any legal requirements, including data privacy laws (such as GDPR) and intellectual property laws, particularly when dealing with sensitive or proprietary information.

- X. By publishing with World Environment Journal authors has agreed to all the terms and conditions of the World Environment Journal.
